

Notarial Services

(Costs and Disbursements are Subject to VAT)

Documents which are to be used abroad must be notarised by a Notary Public and sometimes require an Apostille, an official government issued certificate which is attached to your document.

Keogh Caisley are able to provide this service to you, by appointment. You will be required to provide photographic identification.

The table below shows the costs associated with each service, subject to circumstances specific to the service required.

Service	Document Type	Costs
Notarial	Documents to be used abroad	£120 + VAT for the first document; Additional fee for subsequent documents, to be quoted
	Power of Attorney	£150 + VAT
Notarial with Apostille	Documents to be used abroad requiring an Apostille	£300 - £450 + VAT Additional fee for subsequent documents, to be quoted
Courier Services for documents with Apostille	Consular Services	To Be Quoted
	Royal Mail Special Delivery to home address	To Be Quoted